

SPECIALTY FACILITATOR

Matthew De Gooijer - Athletic Therapist

Matt grew up playing sports and helping out at the family farm in Saskatchewan. In 2013 he completed his undergrad degree in Kinesiology from the University of Regina. He then attended and graduated from the Athletic Therapy program at Mount Royal University and became certified with the Canadian Athletic Therapists Association in 2014. Matt has 10+ years of experience working with varsity teams in Saskatchewan, Alberta, and Nova Scotia. Matt has also worked for and enjoyed treating injuries with the Canadian Pro Rodeo Sport Medicine Team. Matt has worked with the Yarmouth Mariners Jr A MHL Hockey Team who went to the Hockey Canada Jr A Centennial Cup National Championships in Spring 2023 before he made the move out to the west coast and began working with the Campbell River Storm Jr A VIJHL Hockey Team and the Campbell River Ravens Jr B Lacrosse. Matt also enjoys working with the Campbell River Skating Club athletes. Matt is looking forward to helping you recover!